

HEROES OF GOD
MEDIA CLUB
BOOKS & FILMS TO FORM STRONG CATHOLICS

Dear Families,

We are participating in the Ignatius Press HEROES OF GOD Media Club—an exciting program offering wonderful faith-building products for preschoolers right on up through parents and grandparents—something for everyone in the family—and at great sale prices with FREE shipping! New flyers will be sent home three times each school year.

Not only will you be able to purchase these wonderful products—designed to form strong Catholics—at sale prices, but our school/religious education program will have the opportunity to earn money and free products as well.

Please take some time to browse through this flyer and make selections for yourself and your family and friends. Is there a special occasion, birthday, holiday or sacramental celebration approaching? What better gifts to give than ones that are fun and faithfully fulfilling?

And don't forget to ask grandparents and family members if they would like to place an order. Extra order forms are available.

Be sure to include your payment with your order and return it to the school/religious education program by the date indicated on the top of the order form. If the products are for gifts, check the appropriate box on the order form and you will be notified when your order is in so that you can pick it up.
